THE ATTEMPTED MURDER OF ROBINSON.—Yesterday morning the injured man, Frederick Robinson, who was shot on Tuesday night at a restaurant, corner of Fifth and Walnut streets, was suffering much from nervous excitement. The physicians attending him have forbidden the intrusion into his room of any of the numerous callers. Robinson had but recently been married, and is living happily with his wife in Powell street, near Sixth. He denies the charges against him in the papers of the papers yesterday morning, and states that he never saw Fries previous to Monday evening, when he entered the bar-room where the deed was committed. Fries had a hearing before Alderman Butler yesterday afternoon, and was committed to prison to await the results of the injuries indicated. Mr. Stuart, Alderman Dougherty, and Sergeant Court were examined, but no new facts were elicited.

MEETING OF THE PRESBYTERY.—The Third Presbytery of Philadelphia yesterday closed its annual meeting in Calvary Church. Rev. Isaac Riley, of Pottsville, was the Moderator. The reports from the churches exhibited an unusual amount of spiritual and financial success. Accessions have been more than usually numerous and contributions to evangelizing enterprises largely increased. Rev. W. E. Moore, Rev. H. B. Hotchkin, Hon. Wilmer Worthington, and Hon. Joseph Allison were elected Commissioners to the General Assembly, which meets next May in the city of St. Louis. The Presbytery holds an adjourned meeting this evening in the Chester City Presbyterian Church, for the ordination of Rev. N. F. Jones as pastor thereof.

HOSPITAL ITEMS.—William Brummenger, aged 24, residing in Shippen street, above Eighth, had three of the fingers of his right hand cut off by a stamp in a tin factory. Rebecca Formley, aged 40, residing at No. 2040 Evergreen street, had all the fingers of her right hand badly mashed at a paper factory. Twenty-first street and Washington avenue.

William Mount, aged 12, fell from a scaffold, and had his left arm fractured. They were all admitted to the Pennsylvania Hospital.

A HANDSOME PRIZE HOSE CARRIAGE.—At the hall Fifth and Gaskill streets a fair is now open in aid of St. Alphonsus' Church. Among the prizes being voted for is a beautiful hose carriage, which will be valuable to the fire company that can master the largest number of friends. Last evening the vote stood as follows:—Hope Hose, 90; Southwark Engine, 66; Moyamensing Hose, 53; Martin Hose, 6.

THE FAIR AT NATIONAL GUARDS' HALL.—The vote on the hose carriage stood at the close of yesterday as follows:—Vigilant, 62; Columbia Hose, 250; Fairmount Engine, 30; Assistance, 30; Hibernia, 19; Reliance, 2; Northern Liberty Engine, 2; Moyamensing, 2; Humane, 4; South Penn, 1; Diligent, 1; Robert Morris, 2.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.—A young man named Owen McDonnell had his left arm fractured by it being run over by a car of the Market Street Passenger Railway last Wednesday night about half-past eight o'clock. The accident occurred on Market street, near Thirtieth. He was admitted into the Pennsylvania Hospital.

SAFE.—The Mr. Tracy, who was missing from his home, in the Twenty-fourth Ward, published in a morning paper a few days since, was at the house of Mr. John McMahon, in Lancaster City, on the 1st inst., and when he left, stated that he was going to Harrisburg for employment.

ROBBERY.—Three small boys entered the millinery store of Metz & Brown, No. 232 Arch street, on Monday morning, during the temporary absence of the attendants, and robbed the money drawer of its contents, amounting to about eighty dollars. The young rascals managed to make their escape with the booty.

STORE ENTERED.—A tailoring establishment on the lower side of Market street, a short distance west of the permanent bridge, was entered on Saturday night last, and robbed of a quantity of piece goods and clothing.

ELECTION IN BEVERLY, N. J.—The charter election in Beverly, New Jersey, on Tuesday, resulted in the election of Richard D. McElroy, the Democratic candidate for Mayor, and the municipal ticket nominated by the same party.

A CONVENTION TO BE HELD.—The soldiers and sailors of Pennsylvania will hold their annual convention, in this city, on the second Tuesday in May next. A large delegation is expected, and it is expected.

FIRE.—The alarm at half-past 10 o'clock on Tuesday night was caused by a slight fire at No. 2048 Coates street.

Cannon and Cannon Balls.—We find an allusion to cannon as early as the Spanish chronicle of Alonso VI, written by Pedro, Bishops of Leon. In describing a sea fight in the eleventh century, between the Emirs of Seville and Tunis, he says that the vessel of the King of Tunis had on board a number of iron pipes, out of which volumes of thundering fire (onomos de fuego) were discharged.

The first cannon cast in England are said to have been made by John Owen, in the year 1520. It appears to have been introduced in a high state of perfection. Two large brass guns, recovered in 1835, from the Mary Rose, which was sunk at Spithead in 1545—one a 68-pounder and the other a 24-pounder—in beauty of design and workmanship are equal to anything produced in the present day. The largest gun ever made in England, up to 1843, was one weighing eighteen tons, cast in that year for Mehmet Ali, Pasha of Egypt. The bore of the gun was about within one-tenth of an inch of sixteen inches (15 9/10 inches). The weight of its solid shot was 455 pounds, and of its shell, 300 pounds. This gun was twelve feet long, and had an immense quantity of powder in its chamber.

A story is told of a cannon in Belapur, India, which weighs forty tons. A seat in the interior accommodates five persons, without much crowding. It is formed of mixed metal, of which a 24-pounder in heavy of design and a considerable quantity of silver is very sonorous. It was the work of Chuteby Coomy Khan, an officer in the service of Roosteen Nizam Shah, at Ahmadnugger. In giving description of it, Colonel Keith says:—"On the visit of Sir John Malcolm during a period of his Viceroyship at Bombay, the Sattorah Rajah, who holds the surrounding territories under the British Government, directed that this gun should be fired, as an appropriate salute. Though not charged with more than half the weight of powder which its chamber could contain, the concussion was awful; it shook many of the buildings to their foundations, and the terrified inhabitants, as the reverberations rolled along, expected to see the domes and towers, survivors of the former shocks, come tumbling about their ears."

At the siege of Antwerp, in 1830, General Paixhans, of the French Artillery, proposed to King Leopold to shoot the shells by means of a mortar, the shells of which would weigh a thousand pounds, and contain each one hundred pounds of powder. The proposal was thought to be inhuman, and it was not until after fifty thousand cannon balls had been spent in a vain bombardment that the monster mortar—a charcoal casting made at Liege—was brought out. Nine shells were fired, huge flying masses, one of which burst in the air, and eight descended into the citadel. Two days after the first shell was fired the Dutch surrendered.

The artillery used at the siege of Baza in the war of Granada, during the siege of Ferdinand and Isabella, were called bombardiers. They are still to be seen in that city, where they long served as columns in the public market places. The largest of them is about twelve feet in length, consisting of iron bars two inches in breadth, held together by bolts and rings of the same metal. These were firmly attached to their carriages, incapable of either vertical or horizontal movement. The balls thrown from these engines were sometimes of iron, but more usually of marble. Several hundred of the latter were picked up on the hills around Baza, many of which are four or five feet in diameter, and weigh 175 pounds. At the siege of Balagner, at the beginning of the fifteenth century, according to Zurita, stone balls were discovered which weighed not less than 550 pounds. A gun recovered from one of the Turkish ships destroyed at Tohesue in 1770 was fourteen feet two inches in length, nine feet in circumference, twenty inches bore, and 210 cwt., or 23,526 lbs. weight.

The first instance of horizontal shell firing on record is that at the siege of Gibraltar, in 1779, where Captain Mercer, of the 39th Regiment, suggested that five and a half inch shells, with short-calculated fuses, should be fired from guns. This practice answered so well that it became general. Red-hot balls were first used by Stephen Buttor, King of Poland, at the siege of Dantzic, 1576.

Pistols were first used by the Germans; Bellay mentions them in the year 1544. In the time of Francis I, an armor in which the armor plates, des reviers, were called pistoles.—Army and Navy Journal.

The Retiring Pennsylvania Senators.—With the close of the present session of the Legislature the terms of eleven Senators will expire, as follows:—1. Jeremiah Stohs, Union, of Philadelphia. 2. Wm. Worthington, Union, of Chester. 3. H. B. Beardslee, Democrat, of Wayne. 4. D. H. Mortenson, Democrat, of Northumberland. 5. John Fisher, Democrat, of Lancaster. 6. Benjamin Chambers, Union, of Lancaster. 7. J. M. Dunlap, Union, of Lancaster. 8. W. W. Householder, Union, of York. 9. John Latta, Democrat, of Westmoreland. 10. William Hopkins, Democrat, of Washington. 11. Thomas Hoke, Union, of Venango.

Seven of the outgoing Senators are Republicans; four are Democrats. Fourteen Republicans and eight Copperheads hold over. It is not likely that any change will occur in the districts to fill these vacancies; at least it is not supposable that any but seven Republicans will be elected to fill the seats just made vacant by the retiring Republican Senators, while there is every reason to believe that a Republican Senator will be elected from the Thirty-sixth District. In this district, the substitution of Beaver for Green county (the county that can master the largest number of friends. Last evening the vote stood as follows:—Hope Hose, 90; Southwark Engine, 66; Moyamensing Hose, 53; Martin Hose, 6.
